

Biography of Colonel Scott F. Wyatt

Assistant Commandant, Quartermaster School, Fort Lee, VA

Colonel Wyatt is a United States Army Colonel with over 22 years of experience in counterterrorism, conventional and nonstandard logistics, and support operations across the European Command (EUCOM), Africa Command (AFRICOM), and Central Command (CENTCOM) areas of operations. He commanded a Surface Deployment and Distribution Command Battalion in Livorno, Italy, responsible for power projection of US and Partnered nation forces throughout Europe, Africa, and the Middle East. He recently served as the Deputy Commander for the 7th Transportation Brigade (Expeditionary). His previous assignments included Chief of Staff, Resourcing Integration Cell Director, Support Operations Officer, and Joint Task Force Logistics Officer for a unit within the United States Army Special Operations Command (USASOC) that conducts worldwide operations in support of government policy objectives; this included multiple overseas tours. Colonel Wyatt resourced and supported diverse operations involving Army and joint forces, law enforcement, intelligence professionals, and international partners. He has also previously worked for Special Operations Command Central (SOCCENT), served on the Secretary of Transportation's (SECDOT) staff, and worked in conventional Army (25th Infantry Division and 1st Infantry Division) organizations. His areas of expertise include leadership, resourcing, and supporting standard military operations and nonstandard and low visibility operations.

Colonel Wyatt's education includes earning a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mathematical-Economics from Wake Forest University, located in Winston-Salem, NC, and a Masters' Degree in Strategic Security Studies, College of International Security Affairs, Joint Special Operations Masters of the Arts, The National Defense University, Washington, DC, USA (Double Honors for Thesis & Academics).

Colonel Wyatt is married to the former Christine M. Borowski from Union, NJ, and has two daughters: Samantha Jane (12) and Julia Grace (8).